

TI-Nspire Mini-Tutorials

Finding the Orthocenter of a Triangle

Summary of Keystrokes

Create a geometry window:

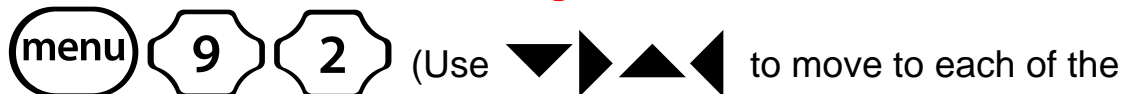

Construct the triangle:

(Use to move to the middle of the screen. Press to define the first point of the triangle. Repeat with the other two points.)

Construct the altitudes of the triangle sides:

Press then move the pointer to the opposite point and press . Manipulate the triangle by moving to one of the points, holding , until you see and then moving the point.)