

TI-Nspire Mini-Tutorials

Finding the Zeros of a Quartic Function Using Function Intersection

Summary of Keystrokes

Create a graph window:

Graph the quartic function:

(Reset Window as necessary to show all zeros.)

Activate function intersection:

(Use to hover over the graph of the quartic. Press . Repeat with the horizontal axis. The zeros should be highlighted as points.)

(Use to hover over the points that define the zeros. Press at each point to see the coordinates.)